FORT LAUDERDALE, FL – October X, 2025 - Pier Sixty-Six Residences, the newly completed luxury residential within Tavistock Development Company's multi-billion-dollar development of the legendary Pier Sixty-Six, announces the debut of its most anticipated residence to date: a $16 million penthouse that sets a new benchmark for extraordinary living on the Intracoastal Waterway.

As the largest condominium currently on the market in Fort Lauderdale, this coastal residence on the 10th floor of the newly completed Indigo building encompasses over 7,600 square feet of meticulously designed indoor and outdoor space. The five-bedroom, five-and-a-half-bathroom penthouse combines 5,452 square feet of interior living space with a 2,150-square-foot wraparound grant terrace featuring two private plunge pools providing 180-degree panoramic vistas of both the Intracoastal Waterway and the Atlantic Ocean.

Designed for the discerning culinary enthusiast, the residence includes dual Wolf built-in ovens and a gas cooktop, two Sub-Zero refrigerator and freezer sets, and two kitchen islands with Cristallo natural stone countertops. A walk-in pantry and two wine and beverage refrigerators at the bar complete the state-of-the-art culinary amenities.

The primary suite offers a luxurious private retreat, showcasing a spacious bedroom with stunning western exposure for breathtaking sunsets. Highlights include a dramatic walk-in closet, an expansive spa-inspired bathroom with a freestanding soaking tub, a walk-in shower with dual showerheads, and a versatile bonus space ideal for a private sauna, fitness studio, or personalized sanctuary.

"Pier Sixty-Six Residences has established itself as a cornerstone of Fort Lauderdale's reputation as a premier destination for luxury waterfront living. As the final and most exclusive offering, our newly released penthouse sets an unprecedented standard for Intracoastal luxury. With effortless ownership and immediate occupancy, it defines a new era of refined coastal living," said Amy Ballon, director of sales, Tavistock Development Company.
