Pier Sixty-Six Residences announced the listing of its Indigo Penthouse for $16 million, marking the residential destination's last penthouse floor plan available for purchase.

Ready for immediate occupancy, the penthouse located on the 10th floor spans 7,794 total square feet, including 5,644 square feet of interior living space, complemented by a 2,150-square-foot wraparound terrace with two private plunge pools. The five-bedroom, five-and-a-half-bathroom residence offers 180-degree sunrise-to-sunset views overlooking the Pier Sixty-Six Marina, Intracoastal Waterway and Atlantic Ocean.

"There's a noticeable sense of life at Pier Sixty-Six today," said Amy Ballon, director of sales for Pier Sixty-Six Residences. "Buyers can now experience the lifestyle from the marina to the wellness and dining that has brought the landmark development to life. That level of immediacy and first-to-market amenities is resonating strongly, especially for a penthouse of this caliber."

Designed as a private waterfront estate, the residence features direct private elevator access, 10-foot ceilings and water views from every room. Interior highlights include a dedicated fitness studio, private sauna, and an expansive open-plan living and dining area anchored by a chef-inspired kitchen with custom Italian cabinetry, quartz countertops, and an integrated appliance suite by Sub-Zero, Wolf, and Asko. All bathrooms are finished with custom Italian wood cabinetry, polished chrome fixtures by Grohe, and smart toilets by Kohler, while the primary bathroom features a spa-style rain shower with integrated LED lighting.

The Indigo Penthouse sits within the 32-acre Pier Sixty-Six waterfront resort, framed by one of the largest superyacht marinas on the Eastern Seaboard, offering 5,000 linear feet of dockage and 164 slips accommodating vessels from 40 to 400 feet, with no bridge restrictions to ocean access.

Ownership includes invitation-only membership to The Club at Pier Sixty-Six, granting access to an exclusive collection of private dining, wellness and social spaces throughout the Club, the 13,000-square-foot Zenova Spa + Wellness – featuring the region’s first snow room and an Aufguss-inspired sauna – the resort, and the Pier Sixty-Six Marina. Members-only amenities include the Orchid Room and Garden Room, private dining venues, a dedicated members’ pool with private cabanas and an outdoor bar, and a 4,500-square-foot fitness and wellness center. Membership is further enhanced by a robust social and cultural calendar of curated events. Additional privileges include a dedicated Club Concierge for reservations and amenity coordination, as well as priority marina benefits such as preferred dockage rates, fuel pricing, day-use slips, boat valet services and access to private boat rentals.

The Indigo residences were designed by garciastromberg, drawing inspiration from boat decks and piers through sculptural forms and expansive cantilevered balconies. Each residence features floor-to-ceiling glass, private elevator access, and secured residential entry, with outdoor terraces each with a private plunge pool marking a first for the market.
